

HIS DIPC Network and Development Programme
Investing in the future: quality improvement and education - programme

21 June 2021, online via Zoom

09:25 – 09:30	Welcome and introduction	Chair
09:30 - 10:00	Why healthcare leadership should embrace quality improvement?	Bernard Crump , Professor of Practice in Healthcare and Leadership, Warwick Business School, University of Warwick
10:00 – 10:30	How can quality improvement and education improve infection prevention and control in the community?	Rosie Dixon , Head of IPC North West, NHS England and Improvement
10:30 – 11:00	How can qualitative research improve the quality of care?	Marta Wanat , Senior Qualitative Researcher in Behavioural Science. Nuffield Department of Primary Health Sciences
11:00 – 11:15	Comfort break
11:15 - 11:45	A new approach to quality in healthcare	Peter Lachman , Lead Faculty Quality Improvement Programme, Royal College of Physicians of Ireland
11:45 - 12:15	Education in infection prevention and control - does it influence infection prevention and control practice?	Sue Millward , Education Workstream Lead, National Infection Prevention and Control Team, NHS England / NHS Improvement
12:15 – 13:00	Lunch
13:00 – 14:30	Quality improvement and how to make it work for you (workshop)	Caroline Eadson , Head of Quality Improvement & Leadership Development at Sheffield Teaching Hospitals
14:30 – 14:45	Comfort break
14:45 - 15:25	Beyond infection prevention and control: Equipping your IPC workforce to educate and change others – what training and skills do they need?	Martin Kiernan , Visiting Clinical Fellow, University of West London
15:25 - 15:55	Hot topic: Challenges of maintaining preparedness to handle uncommon events (such as HCID)	Lucy Lamb , Consultant Infectious Diseases and General Medicine, Royal Free Hospital and Royal National Orthopaedic Stanmore